7.3.2 reasonable and proper remuneration for any goods or services supplied to the Society

7.4 No director may:

- 7.6 7.6.1 The Society and its directors may only rely upon the authority provided by article 7.5 if each of the following conditions is satisfied:
- 7.6.1.1 The amount or maximum amount of the payment for the goods is set out in writing between:

- i) his or her employment or remuneration or any matter concerning the contract; or
 - ii) his or her performance in the employment or his or her performance of the contract; or

7.6.1.5 The other directors are satisfied that it is in the interests of the Society to employ or to contract with that director rather than with someone who is not a director. In reaching that decision the directors must balance the advantage of employing a director against the disadvantages of doing so (especially the loss of the director's services as a result of dealing with the director's conflict of interest)

7.6.1.6 The reason for their decision is recorded by the directors in the minute book

7.6.1.7 A majority of the directors then in office have received no such payments

- 12.3 The notice must specify the date time and place of the meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted. If the meeting is to be an annual general meeting, the notice must say so. The notice must also contain a statement setting out the right of members to appoint a proxy under section 324 of the Companies Act 2006 and article 19.
- 12.4 The notice must be given to all the members and to the directors and auditors.
- 13. The proceedings at a meeting shall not be invalidated because a person who was entitled to receive notice of the meeting did not receive it because of an accidental omission by the Society.

- 14.1 The business to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting shall include the consideration of the accounts, balance sheet, and the report to the Board of the auditors or independent examiner, the receipt of the Annual Report of the Board, the election of members of the Board in the place of those retiring and the employment of, and the fixing of the remuneration of, the auditors (if any).

- the meeting shall be adjourned to such time and place as the directors shall determine.
- 15.2 The directors must reconvene the meeting and must give at least seven days' clear notice of the reconvened meeting stating the date, time and place of the meeting.
- 15.3 If no quorum is present at the reconvened meeting within fifteen minutes of the time specified for the start of the meeting the members present in person or by proxy at that time shall constitute the quorum for that meeting.

- 16.3 If there is only one director present and willing to act, he or she shall chair the meeting.
- 16.4 If no director is present and willing to chair the meeting within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding it, the members present in person or by proxy and entitled to vote must choose one of their number to chair the meeting.
- 17.1 The members present in person or by proxy at a meeting may resolve by ordinary resolution that the meeting shall be adjourned.
- 17.2 The person who is chairing the meeting must decide the date, time and place at which the meeting is to be reconvened unless those details are specified in the resolution.

- 18.2 Unless a poll is so demanded, a declaration by the Chairman as to whether the resolution has on the show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the Society shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against such resolution,
- 18.3 A demand for a poll may be withdrawn and shall not invalidate the result of a show of hands declared before the demand was made.
- 18.4 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the Chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to a second or casting vote.
- 18.5 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken immediately. A poll demanded on any other question shall be taken at such time and in such manner as the Chairman of the meeting directs and any business other than that on which a poll has been demanded may proceed pending the taking of the poll.
